

Busey Offers Support During Government Shutdown

Busey is committed to helping our customers who are impacted by the government shutdown.

We are working with customers on an individual basis to tailor the appropriate relief based on their specific circumstances. Our team is ready to work with affected customers to ensure they have what is needed during this difficult time.

To learn more about how we can assist federal government employees, please contact your local branch.

busey.com

Busey[®]
Member FDIC