Busey Featured in Champaign County Chamber of Commerce's Commerce Connection

Busey is honored to be recognized in the March/April 2018 issue of the Champaign County Chamber of Commerce's bi-monthly publication, Commerce Connection.

The article shares Busey's longstanding commitment to 4 Pillars, including the organization's continual support of neighbors in need during Community Promise Month in April.

Chris Shroyer, President & Chief Executive Officer of Busey Bank, contributed to the article, sharing his gratitude for the dedicated associates that strive to make a difference in the communities we live and serve.

"We are beyond grateful for associates willing to give their time, talents and financial resources to assist charitable organizations during Community Promise Month and throughout the year. Their generosity to help build stronger communities has fulfilled countless dreams since 1868," says Chris.

Commerce Connection is available at the Champaign County Chamber of Commerce and online.

Busey is humbled to be included in the publication—an honor that wouldn't be possible without our dedicated associates!
