

Busey, First Community and South Side Bank Growing Forward, Together, in 2017 and Beyond

To further provide service excellence to customers, associates and communities in downstate Illinois, Busey is pleased to partner with Mid Illinois Bancorp, Inc. ("Mid Illinois")—pending regulatory approval. First Busey ("Busey"), the holding company for Busey Bank, will acquire Mid Illinois, the holding company for South Side Trust & Savings Bank ("South Side Bank") of Peoria, through a merger transaction, which is anticipated to close in the second half of 2017. South Side Bank would subsequently merge with and in to Busey Bank early 2018.

Founded in 1922 and with more than $665 million in bank assets and $575 million in trust assets, South Side Bank operates as a state chartered commercial and trust bank with 13 branches located within the greater Peoria area. South Side Bank also owns Mid-Illinois Insurance Services, Inc. Busey currently operates five branches within the Peoria area. The area has a solid economic climate that is home to significant professional, insurance, health care, information technology and manufacturing businesses. Mark Joseph, Mid Illinois's President and Chief Executive Officer, will continue to lead the greater Peoria market once the acquisition is completed, as Mr. Joseph will be named Busey Bank's Executive Vice-President and Commercial Market President, Peoria.

First Busey President and Chief Executive Officer Van A. Dukeman says, "Busey continues to expand its franchise through balanced, integrated growth strategies that generate value for our pillars—customers, associates, communities and shareholders. The acquisition of South Side Bank enhances our presence in Peoria, a market important to us and core to our franchise. South Side is the premier community bank in Peoria with a 95-year history and deep ties to the communities it serves. We are excited about the opportunities South Side's uniquely attractive deposit franchise and trust and investment business present in Peoria and across our footprint. We are pleased to partner with South Side Bank and we look forward to building upon its storied history."

Joseph adds, "Busey is a natural partner for Mid Illinois because it understands the Peoria market, offers a broad range of financial service products to meet our customers' growing needs, and shares an unwavering service commitment to customers, associates, communities and shareholders. Busey's strong capital position allows for larger credits, spurring additional economic and community development opportunities, all while preserving a community banking approach the Peoria market appreciates."

This exciting news follows the previously announced collaboration with First Community Financial Partners, Inc. ("First Community") in the Chicagoland area—pending regulatory and shareholder approval. First Busey will acquire First Community, the holding company for First Community Financial Bank, through a merger transaction, which is anticipated to close mid-2017. First Community Financial Bank would subsequently merge with and into Busey Bank in late 2017.

Founded in 2004, and with more than $1.26 billion in assets, First Community has nine branches in Will, DuPage and Grundy counties, which encompass portions of the southwestern suburbs of Chicago. Roy C. Thygesen, First Community's President and CEO, will continue to lead First Community through the merger. Once the acquisition is complete, Roy will be named Busey Bank's Executive Vice-President and Market President, Northern Illinois.

Busey, First Community and South Side Bank value an engaged and empowered workforce, and are committed to building a premier, service-oriented, community brand experience. Busey is a Best Place to Work in Illinois, as well as a Best Bank to Work For across the country. Further, both Busey and First Community are among the 26 top performing small-cap banks and thrifts—Sm-All Stars—by Sandler O'Neill + Partners, L.P. in the nation, and the only two Illinois banks to be named.
