

Busey Honored with Centennial Club Award Recognized by Illinois Bankers Association for Anniversary

Busey is humbled to receive the Centennial Club award by the Illinois Bankers Association, which recognizes financial institutions statewide that have reached and surpassed their 100th anniversary.

With a long-standing tradition of service excellence and a storied history going back 150 years, Busey received the award at the annual conference of the Illinois Bankers Association in Chicago on Thursday, June 21.

Amy Randolph, Chief of Staff & Executive Vice President of Pillar Relations, attended the event and accepted the prestigious award on behalf of the organization.

"It is a true honor to accept the Centennial Club award, which highlights Busey's 150-year tradition of service excellence in everything we do for 4 Pillars— associates, customers, shareholders and communities," says Amy. "The longevity of this organization is a true testament to the commitment and dedication of past and present associates. This award simply would not be possible without them," Amy adds.

Busey is deeply humbled to be recognized with the Centennial Club award by Illinois Bankers Association. We thank our associates, past and present for their continuous contributions making this acknowledgement possible.
