

The 1868 Collection | Artists Showcase

Busey is pleased to showcase the unique artwork from artists, including school children, throughout the communities it serves in The 1868 Collection.

The new art exhibit, which is in partnership with the Champaign County Arts Council (40 North I 88 West), will be located at Busey Wealth Management's headquarters in downtown Urbana, Illinois. From paintings and drawings to photography and graphic design, the original artwork will be displayed, free of charge, in The 1868 Collection with new exhibits introduced bi-annually.

"We're excited to welcome associates, customers and community members, the Pillars of the organization, to browse the unique, artistic creations from local artists during normal business hours," says Curt Anderson, President of Busey Wealth Management. "For 150 years, Busey has advocated for the arts in our community. The 1868 Collection exemplifies Busey's longstanding commitment to the community."
